THE EDITOR of the following sheets having some time ago collected the Pedigrees of a number of celebrated Race-Horses merely for his own amusement, they were found to be occasionally useful to Breeders and others. This induced him to extend his plan, in the hope that, by making a careful and judicious collection of all the Pedigrees of Race-Horses, &c. that it was possible to obtain, he would be enabled to present to the Lovers of the Turf an useful and entertaining publication. How far he has fulfilled his intentions the following pages will shew.—To the Pedigrees is added, an account of the Performances of the Horses, &c. interspersed with such anecdotes respecting each as attracted the public attention at the time of their appearance upon the turf.—The account of those celebrated Turks, Barbs, and Arabians, from whom have descended the most distinguished horses that ever were in this kingdom; the accurate Calendar of the Races at York, Hambleton, Richmond, Doncaster, &c. the Lists of the Company at the Assembly-Rooms at York; and the many other articles connected in some degree with the business of the turf—he flatters himself will be acceptable to his readers.

With the sincerest gratitude the Editor desires to make his acknowledgments to those gentlemen, who have not only encouraged him by their patronage to proceed with his work, but have also in the most polite and friendly manner greatly assisted him in the compilation of it by their valuable communications.

ACCOUNT of the CARRIAGE-MATCH,

MADE BY THE

EARLS of MARCH and EGLINGTON,

WITH

THEOBALD TAAFFE and ANDREW SPROWLE, Esqrs.

For ONE THOUSAND GUINEAS.

THE conditions of the articles were, to get a carriage with four running wheels, and a person in or upon it, drawn by four horses, nineteen miles in one hour; their Lordships were to give two months notice what week it should be done in, and had the liberty of chusing any one day in that week.

The Match was performed on Newmarket-Heath, on the 29th of August, 1750, in fifty-three minutes and twenty-seven seconds, as appeared by three stop-watches the umpiers held, which did not vary one second.

The machine, with a postillion of Lord March's, fixed thereon, weighed about twenty-four stone. The horses were all properly trained for racing; the two leaders, including riders, saddles, and harness, carried about 8ft. each; and the wheel-horses about 7ft. each.

TAWNEY, (late Mr. Greville's) the near-leader, was rode by William Everett, Mr. Panton's groom, who had the conducting the race to go at. The off-leader, RODERICK RANDOM, (late Mr. Stamford's); the near-leader, CHANCE, (late Duke of Hamilton's); and the off-leader, LITTLE DAN, (late Mr. Thompson's of Beverley, Yorkshire) were rode by three boys, who had bolsters to preserve their shoulders. A groom, dressed in crimson-velvet, rode before to clear the way. The postillion, was dressed in a white sattin waistcoat, black velvet cap, and red stockings; and Mr. Everett and the three boys that rode the horses, were in blue sattin waistcoats, buckskin breeches, white silk stockings, and black velvet caps. The traces of the machine (by an ingenious contrivance) run into boxes with springs, when any of the horses hung back, to prevent the traces from getting under their legs; and a rope went from the further end of the carriage to the pole, and brought back under it, to keep the pole steady; by the side of each wheel there were tin-cases with oil dropping on the axle-tree, to prevent its firing. The boy placed thereon, was only to fulfil the articles.

It started about seven in the morning, near the Six-Mile House, and run between the Warren and Rubbing-Houses, came through at the Ditch, called the Running-Gap, then turned to the right, and run three times round a cordid piece of ground of four miles, and then back to the place it started from. The first four miles were run in 9 minutes; the odds were then 2 to 1.

This match was performed before a great number of spectators, without any person attempting to ride with it, except Mr. George Tuting and Lord March's groom, who were to assist in case of an accident.

§ The least accident or interruption did not happen.

Kirkleatham, December 1, 1775.

MR. CHARLES TURNER's Hounds hunted at Ayreyholm, near Hurworth, and found the noted old Fox CÆSAR, who made an extraordinary chase: After a round of four miles, he led to Smeaton, through Hornby and Appleton; then back again to Hornby, Worset Moor, Pierburgh, Limpton, Craythorn, Middleton, Hilton, Seamer, Newby, Marton, Ormsby; then upon Hambleton, through Kirkleatham Park, Upleatham, Skelton, and Kilton. Mr. Turner tired three horses, and only three hounds in the pursuit, when he thought proper to call them off, it being near five in the evening, and invited the Gentlemen present to his house at Kirkleatham, where they were most hospitably entertained. The chase was upwards of 50 miles.

Mr. JENISON SHAFTO's TIME-MATCH.

Mr. SHAFTO undertook to ride fifty miles in two hours, which he accomplished in one hour, forty-nine minutes, and seventeen seconds, at Newmarket, on Wednesday, June 27, 1759, in the morning after four o'clock; and, to the great admiration of the Nobility and Gentry assembled, he went through the whole without the least fatigue.

The above match was made for a considerable sum, and it was said, that Mr. Shafto won above sixteen thousand pounds.

N. B. Mr. Major's mare did not begin one day till ten o'clock, Mr. Woodcock beginning in the morning with a horse called Quidunc, and went about 60 miles by nine o'clock, and then tired; afterwards he took Mr. Major's mare to perform the 100 miles in the remaining part of that day, which he did, and finished it about eleven o'clock at night, which was the latest hour during the whole performance, so that he rode 160 miles that day.—The course he rode was from the Hare-Park to the Ditch, which made three miles, from thence went a three-mile course round the Flat on that side the Ditch next Newmarket. This match was made for a considerable sum of money, and many hundred pounds, if not thousands, were depending on it. Mr. Thornhill was allowed as many horses as he pleased, and to perform it in fifteen hours, which he did in eleven hours thirty-three minutes and fifty-two seconds, as above, which is three hours, twenty-six minutes, and eight seconds, under the time allowed him.

The late Sir CHARLES TURNER's LEAPING-MATCH, made with the Earl of MARCH, for One Thousand Guineas, and performed on Fell near Richmond, Yorkshire, about the Year 1752-3.

THE conditions of the match were that Sir Charles Turner should ride ten miles within the hour, in which he was to take forty leaps, each leap to be one yard, one quarter, and seven inches high. Sir Charles performed it on a gallows, with great ease, in thirty-six minutes.

The Earl and Countess of Northumberland, and several other persons of rank and distinction were present.

C E R T I F I C A T E.

WE the under-mentioned do declare, that having met in order to see a MATCH run between the EARL of EFFINGHAM's and COL. THORNTON's Hounds—on the Confederate Hounds not appearing, the Tryers declared the Cup forfeited.

We also further declare, that the Hounds found at 27 minutes past nine, and, except the space of near half an hour taken in bolting the Fox from a rabbit-hole, had a continued run until five o'clock, when we had an escape; and after repeated views we killed him at 14 minutes past five by the different watches.

The odds at starting were higher upon Bagpiper than had ever before been known; the first heat was, perhaps, the finest ever run, being most severely contested for the whole four miles by Bully-Rock, Dimple, and Bagpiper, and won with uncommon difficulty.—Bagpiper was lamed in running the second heat, owing to some holes in the course which had not been sufficiently filled up with earth. Though Bagpiper was beat the first heat, it was the opinion of many that he would have won the plate if the above accident had not happened.

Lord Godolphin's Wasp, Mr Cutler's Blue-Bonnet, Mr Mackworth's Bonny-Bay, Mr Plumpton's Northern Nanny, Mr Watson's Farmer, Mr

Thwaite's Foxhunter, and Mr Diston's Spavins, were all distanced the first heat, by being thrown down by Proserpine and Mr. Frampton's gelding.

The Duke of Rutland's Proserpine and Mr. Frampton's gelding were the favourites before starting, and large sums were depending between the two; but when they had run about a mile they both unfortunately fell: By which accident the riders Edward Jackson and John Peirson were so much bruised as to be obliged to be carried off the course in a carriage to Clifton, where Jackson died in a few weeks, and Peirson did not long survive him.

The Duke's Proserpine, Mr. Frampton's gelding, and Mr. Fulthorp's Woodcock afterwards met at Lincoln, when the gelding was the favourite of the day; but Woodcock proved victorious.—After which, they met at Newmarket in October, and Woodcock was back'd to win at high odds; but the gelding, true to his master's interest, convinced the friends of honest Woodcock, that he only complimented him with the King's Plate at Lincoln with a view to occasion their meeting again at Newmarket.

At Burford no horse entered against him, and by the articles he was only entitled to 10gs. but the gentlemen managers were pleased to give him the 50l. Driver then became the property of Capt. Vernon; and at Newmarket in April 1753, received 50gs. from Mr. Panton's Slip by; and won 50l. give-and-take at Epsom, beating, at three heats, Mr. Rogers's Aaron, by Whitefoot, who beat Driver the 1st heat, and Lord Onslow's Squirrel was three times third; he also won 50l. at Litchfield, beating, at three heats, Mr. Hunt's Jig of Jigs, Mr. Meredith's Midas, and Mr. Nelson's Greylegs; and 50l. at Warwick, beating, at two heats, Mr. Warren's Camilla, and Lord Portmore's True-Briton. In 1754, Mr. Vernon sold Driver to Mr. Aaron Lamego for 110gs. after which he started at Epsom against Mr. Rogers's Aaron, allowing him 9lb. in which he was beat by Aaron at three severe heats; the second being deemed a dead one. Driver afterwards won 50l. at Rumford, Essex, beating easy Lord March's Wanton, and two others; and 50l. at Reading, beating easy Mr. Rogers's Soldier. Driver travelled, the day before running, 26 miles in very wet weather, purposely to enter at the post. He also won 50l. give-and-take at Maidenhead, beating, at three heats, Mr. Rogers's Aaron: In the first heat, near the Ending-Post, Driver fell and threw his rider, as did Aaron on his knee, and threw his; both of which was occasioned by the crowd breaking-in upon them, but the heat was given to Driver: the second heat Aaron won easy; the third was an exceedingly good one, and won by about a length. Driver measured 14 hands 3 quarters of an inch, and carried 9ft. 5lb. 4 oz. and Aaron measured 13 hands 3 inches 3 quarters, and carried 8ft. 12lb. 4 oz. The odds at starting were 6 to 4 on Driver; after the first heat little betting; after the second heat, 2 to 1 on Aaron: There were a greater number of sportsmen attended this race, than was ever known on a like occasion. Driver likewise won 50l. give-and-take at Malden, beating, at two heats, (though with difficulty) Mr. Hudson's Blacklegs: Driver carried 9ft. 5lb. 4 oz. and Blacklegs 8ft. 11b. 12 oz. In 1755, Driver won 50l. wt. 10ft. at Guildford, beating easy Lord Onslow's (late D. of Ancafter's) Martin, by Cade. The odds, before starting, were 2 to 1 on Martin; but, after the first heat, 5 to 1 on Driver. He also won 50l. give-and-take at Hull, beating, at three heats, Mr. Hudson's Blacklegs, and Mr. Hunt's Fox. The odds were 2 to 1 on Driver: The first heat was smartly contested by Driver and Blacklegs, and won with difficulty by the former; for the second heat, they all went off at score, but Driver soon drew up, and the other two pushed on, when Blacklegs won the heat by about two lengths; the third heat was run briskly through by Driver and Blacklegs, (Fox being drawn) and which heat, was also won with difficulty by Driver. He afterwards won 50l. give-and-take at Durham, beating Mr. Pearson's Little Partner: The first heat being deemed a dead one, it was agreed that the horse that won the second heat should have the plate, which was won by Driver by about a length. He also won 50l. wt. 10st. at Maidenhead, beating, at three heats, (though lame) Mr. Brookes's Lady Thigh, by Grisewood's Partner, Mr. Martin's Rose, by Second, and Mr. Leath's Maggot, by Dismal. This was the last time of Driver's running, so that he won 1450l. in 50l. plates; received 50l. at Burford; and two forfeits of 50gs each, at Newmarket. He likewise won two legacy plates, carrying upwards of 12st. received two premiums of 10l. each; and was excluded with Gustavus from running at Guildford in 1752, on account of their superior form.

DUCHESS, bred by Richard Langley, Esq; of Wycombe-Abby, near Scarbrough, was got by the Devonshire Blacklegs, and out of an own sister to the Duke of Bolton's Goliath, that won eight Royal plates in one year. In 1749, DUCHESS won the subscription-purse at Hambleton; and was sold to Thomas Duncombe, Esq; in whose possession she won the King's plate at Hambleton in 1750; also at Newmarket in April following. She likewise won 50l. at Stamford, beating Lord Portmore's Prim, by Crab. Duchess was then sold for 300gs. to Sir Edward O'Brien to go into Ireland, where she won several plates and matches.

DUCHESS, bred by Thomas Panton, Esq; of Newmarket, and sold, when young, to William Fenwick, Esq; of Bywell.—She was got by Lord Portmore's Whitenose, son of the Godolphin Arabian; her dam, called Slamakin, (and was the dam of Othello, alias Black-and-all-Black, Oroonoko, and Panton's Conqueror) by Honeywood's Young True Blue, (that won the King's plate at York in 1724); her grandam by Lord Oxford's Dun Arabian, and out of a black-leg'd Royal Mare of the Duke of Newcastle's, bred by Lord Darcy of Sedbury. In 1752, DUCHESS won the four years old 50l. at Carlisle; the subscription-purse at Hambleton; the great subscription of 144l. 10s. at York; and the four years old 50l. at Morpeth. In 1753, she won the King's plate at Hambleton. At Newmarket in April, 1754, Duchess won the King's plate for mares, 10st.

R. C. beating Mr. Johnson's Black Nan, Lord Gower's Lucy, and Mr. Vernon's Amelia. She also won the King's plate at Nottingham, beating Mr. Warren's Camillus; the King's plate at York; and the King's plate at Lincoln, beating Smuggler and Camillus; she also won the King's plate at Newmarket in October, beating, at two heats, Lord Onslow's (late Bowes's) Cato, and two others. Duchess won this plate exceedingly easy; and it was said, that Mr. Fenwick refused 1400gs. for her. At Newmarket in April, 1755, Duchess won the King's plate, beating, at two heats, Mr. Vernon's (late Smith's) Skim, and Mr. Warren's Camillus. The odds were from 3 to 6 to 1 on Duchess; and after the first heat, 50 to 1. She also walk'd over for the jockey club plate of 100gs. and afterwards started for the ladies' plate at Huntingdon, against the Duke of Ancaster's Spectator, allowing him 11lb. and was beat with great difficulty. Duchess was then taken out of training, and was the dam of Chymist, Dux, Le Sang, &c.

DUCHESS, bred by Mr. John Coates, was got by Le Sang; her dam, Calliope, (and is the dam of Orpheus, Captive, Omphale, &c.) by Slouch; her grandam by Oroonoko, and out of an own sister to Clark's Lass of the Mill.^{*} Slouch was got by Cade, and out of the dam of Blank. In April, 1778, Duchess carrying 8ft. 2lb. beat Mr. Witty's chef. colt, by Turk, 8ft. two miles over Hambleton, 100gs. and won a sweepstakes of 240gs. at Hunmanby, beating Mr. Bethell's None-so-pretty, and six others. In 1779, Duchess won a sweepstakes of 180gs. at New-castle; a sweepstakes of 80gs. at York; a sweepstakes of 200gs. the King's plate (called Hambleton 100gs.) and the four years old 50l. at Richmond; also a sweepstakes of 80gs. wt. for age, at Northallerton, beating Mortonia and Icelander. As Duchess was lame before starting, and which greatly increased in running, the heat was for some time in favour of Mortonia; however, Duchess won it by her honesty and goodness, though with difficulty. In 1780, Duchess walk'd over for the King's plate at New-castle; won the King's plate at Carlisle, beating easy Lord Surrey's Whiz-gig; she also won the 50l. wt. for age, at the same place, (carrying 5lb. extra.) beating, at two heats, Young Morwick and Sheepstealer; she walk'd over for the King's plate (called Hambleton 100gs.) at York; and at the same meeting won the great subscription of 268l. 15s. beating Capt. Tart, Reaper, Somebody, Mortonia, and Honest Robin; which last was back'd 6 to 4 against the field; and the odds were 7 to 4 against Duchess; but when they had run two miles, the bets were very high in her favour, as she left all the others a considerable way, and won with the greatest ease imaginable. Duchess also won the gold cup at Richmond; the gold cup, and the 100l. wt. for age, at Doncaster. In 1781, Duchess won the great subscription of 277l. 10s. at York; the 100l. wt. for age, at Morpeth, beating Icelander and Wickham; and 50l. wt. for age, at Northallerton, beating Amazon and Moses. Duchess was beat this year at York, by Fortitude and Weazel, which was the second time of her ever being beat; the first was at Hull, (when three years old, and at that time lame)

* Since the printing off the first page of the Pedigrees, &c. the Editor has been informed, on the very best authority, that Mr. Coates's Old Oroonoko Mare, (the dam of Atalanta, Calliope, &c.) was not out of Clark's Lass of the Mill, but out of an OWN SISTER TO THAT MARE, which was also bred by Mr. Clark, and kept by Mr. Coates for a brood mare. Lass of the Mill was sold by Mr. Coates to Mr. Fenton, and, as observed, was the grandam of Bay Malton and Treasurer.

where she was beat by Honest Robin. In 1782, Duchess won 50l. wt. for age, at Chesterfield, beating Mr. Wastell's Eyebright; 50l. at Morpeth, beating Sheepstealer and Camomile; and the 100l. wt. for age, at the same place, beating Judge Jeffries, and distancing Privateer the second heat. Duchess allowed them 8lb each, and won with great ease; though Privateer had beat her at York, and given her his year: Duchess also won 50l. at Northallerton, beating Shrimp and Petrach; but was beat at Malton by Judge Jeffries and Hermit; Privateer and Miracle also started: Duchess beat Privateer the first and second heats, but as he was second for the third heat, disputes arose which should be deemed to have the best of the race, or whether, as it could not be satisfactorily determined, the bets ought not to be drawn. However many bets were paid in favour of Privateer, contrary, as appears from the following similar case, to the opinion of the Jockey Club:

At Newmarket in May, 1756, the Jockey Club Plate of 100gs. was run for, wt 8st. 7lb. heats, four miles each, R. C. and won by

Duke of Ancafter's bay horse, Spectator, aged	—	6	1	1
Mr. W. Crofts's dun horse, Brilliant, 6 y. old	—	1	2	4
Mr Fenwick's bay horse, Match'em, aged	—	3	3	3
Lord Gower's bay horse, Sweepstakes, aged	—	4	4	5
Sir Wm. Middleton's chev. horse, Whistlejacket, aged	5	5	2
Duke of Cumberland's grey horse, Crab, aged	—	2	dr

Large sums being depending between Match'em and Whistlejacket, disputes arose similar to those at Malton between Duchess and Privateer. The matter being referred to the Jockey Club, THEY POSTED the horses in the ABOVE manner, in CONSEQUENCE of the ADVERTISEMENT HAVING STATED THAT IT SHOULD BE "THE BEST TWO HEATS OF THREE." This decision of the Club has since been usually referred to in settling similar cases, except, however, at Malton, though PARTICULARLY IN POINT, as the ADVERTISEMENT STATED "THE BEST TWO HEATS OF THREE," AS HAD BEEN DONE IN THE NEWMARKET ONE.— There cannot be a doubt, therefore, that the Jockey Club would have given a decisive judgment in favour of Duchess, HAD THEIR OPINION BEEN ASKED.

In the Racing Calendar for 1783, where an account of Durham races is given, the horses, &c. that ran for the members' 50l. are placed as follows:

Mr. Gregson's chev. mare, Wasp, by Negro, 6 y. old	4	1	1
Mr. Burdon's bay mare, Dorcas, 5 y. old	—	3	3 2
Mr. Addison's bay horse, Contractor, ditto	—	2	2 3
Mr. Artley's b. m. Nanny-O, 6 y. old, (broke down)	1	dr

Notwithstanding this, the stewards referred, as it is supposed, to the Jockey Club's decision stated above, and considered Contractor as the second best horse to Wasp, and intitled to the stakes. In consequence thereof, the bets between him and Dorcas were given in his favour. There are several instances in the Racing Calendar of horses being placed after the manner of those at Durham, without any reason being assigned by the publisher for so doing; yet such a practice, it is presumed, ought not to have any weight when it is contrary to so respectable an authority as that of the Jockey Club.

In 1783, Duchess won the King's plate at Edinburgh, beating, at two heats, Mr. Wetherell's Amazon, Duke of Hamilton's Disguise, and Major Alves's Buskin. This was the last time of Duchess's winning, and last but one of her racing. She is now a brood-mare in Mr. Burdon's stud.

DULCINEA, bred by the late John Atkinson, Esq; of Scholes-Park, near Wakefield, Yorkshire, was got by Whistlejacket; her dam, (Mambrino and Vauxhall Snap's dam) by Cade; grandam by the Bolton Little John, and out of a daughter of the Bald Galloway, which mare was the dam of Lord Portmore's Daffodil. In 1768, DULCINEA received a forfeit of 100gs. at York; and won the maiden 50l. at Wakefield. In 1769, Dulcinea won the King's plate at Newcastle, beating Steady, Denmark, and Strawberry; and the King's plate at Hambleton; also the King's plate for mares at Newmarket in April, 1770, beating Mr. Strode's Fanny, by Merlin, Mr. Fortescue's Laycock, and two others; and beat Lord Rockingham's Monkey, a match of 200gs. at Doncaster. In 1771, Dulcinea won 50l. at Lincoln, beating, at two heats, the Duke of Kingiton's Cossack. She then became a brood-mare in Lord Grosvenor's stud.

DUNKIRK, the property of Matthew Lister, Esq; of Lincolnshire, was got by Fox Cub; his dam by the Durey Royal Colt, and out of a daughter of the Lambert Turk. In 1731, DUNKIRK won the ladies' plate at York; and was sold to Lord Portmore for 350gs. and in the same year won 40l. at Stockton, and 50gs. at Warwick. In 1735, he won 20gs. at Doncaster, 20l. at Mansfield, 40gs. at Preston, 50gs. at Manchester, 40gs. at Perth in Scotland, 30gs. at Ludlow, and a 20l. plate at Newmarket; at which place, in the year following, he beat Mr. Bathurst's famous Diamond, (who won the King's plate at York in 1732) a match of 200gs. He also won 40gs. at Uppingham, and a 30l. plate at Nottingham.

DUX, bred by the late William Fenwick, Esq; was got by Match'em, and out of his famous Duchess. MATCH'EM, the property of the late Wm. Fenwick, Esq; was bred by John Holmes, Esq; of Carlisle, and got by Cade; his dam by Crofts' Partner; his grandam (Mr. Vane's Little Partner's grandam) by Makefels; a daughter of Brimmer—Place's White Turk, (Trumpet's dam)—Dodsworth, and out of a Layton Barb Mare. Match'em was own brother to Changeling and full brother to Young Cade; and his dam was full sister to the dams of Dormouse, Torrismond, Madam, &c. In 1753, MATCH'EM won the great subscription of 160l. 5s. at York; and the five years old 50l. at Morpeth, beating Mr. Shafto's Blameless, by Forester, who won the first heat. In 1754, Match'em received a 20l. premium, and won the free plate of 100l. at York. He also won the ladies' 80l. at Lincoln, beating, at two heats, the Duke of Ancaster's Martin, and Mr. Smith's Skim; and walk'd over for 50l. at Morpeth. At Newmarket in April, 1755, Match'em won the 50l. for six-year olds and aged horses, B. C. beating Mr. Bowles's Trajan, and distanced two others: He won this race extremely easy; but, it was said, Trajan ran faster than Match'em up the Chalk-Jade, but could not maintain it: They ran the heat in 7 minutes and 20 seconds, carrying 8ft. 7lb. each;—the odds were 5 and 6 to 4 on Match'em, and large sums were lost on the contest. The friends of Trajan were not satisfied that Match'em was the best horse, from the very indifferent condition of Trajan, who was only taken from grass the December before, and had had but one sweat during the whole winter; and when he came to Newmarket was injudiciously hurried with the strongest exercise to prepare him for running: On this, Mr. Fenwick offered to run Match'em against any horse in England, which was accepted by Mr. Bowles to run Trajan against him, at the Newmarket following Spring Meeting.

In August, Match'em received a 20l. premium not to start at York.

At Newmarket in April, 1756, Match'em and Trajan met according to agreement, at 10ft. each, for 400gs. and the whip, B. C. when Match'em proved the winning horse: The odds at starting were 2 to 1 on Match'em; over the Flat, 5 to 1 on Trajan; but at the Turn of the Lands, 100 to 1 on Match'em, who then made his run; and it was observed, that Mr. Singleton, who rode him, judged perfectly right in keeping behind, and fretting the hot Trajan, till he had got him out; and although Trajan had the lead upon the Flat, to maintain it, he was obliged to be whipp'd very hard. In the second Spring Meeting, Match'em started for the jockey club plate, and was beat by Spectator and Brilliant; Match'em being only three times third; Sweepstakes, Whistlejacket, and Crab, also started; (see page 40.) The odds, for the first heat, (which was run in 7 minutes, 52 seconds and an half) were 4 to 1 against Brilliant, 3 to 1 against Whistlejacket, and 2 to 1 against Match'em: The odds for the second heat, (which was run in 7 minutes and 40 seconds) 2 and 3 to 1 against Brilliant, 4 to 1 against Spectator, and Match'em scarce named: And the odds for the third heat, (which was run in 8 minutes and 5 seconds) were 2 to 1 on Spectator, and 6 to 1 against Whistlejacket, who made good running, and was second the last heat.—After which, Match'em won 60gs. at Newcastle, beating, at two heats, Mr. Swinburn's Drawcanfir, and Mr. Parker's Full-Moon.

At Newmarket second Spring Meeting, 1758, Match'em started again for the jockey club plate,* and was second to Mr. Greville's Mirza; Sir James Lowther's Jason third; Mr. Panton's Feather fourth; and Mr. Vernon's Forester fifth. The odds were 6 to 1 against Mirza, 10 to 1 against Match'em, 6 to 4 against Jason, and even money against Feather. Though Mirza gained advantage at starting, which he kept above three miles, yet Match'em ran an excellent honest horse, and was beat with great difficulty: And as large sums were depending between Match'em, Jason, and Feather, it was observed, "That the friends of Poor Old Match'em, not only comb'd the Golden Fleece, but dress'd the Feathers very handsomely." This was the thirteenth time of Mirza's running, and was never beat.

In September following, Match'em won 50l. wt. for age, at Scarbrough, beating, at two heats, Mr. Jolliff's Foxhunter, and Mr. Harvey's Sweetlips. The odds, at starting, were 10 to 1 on Match'em; and after the heat, 20 to 1. The above were the only times of Match'em's running. He then became the leading stallion in the North of England, where he covered with uncommon success, till death put a period to his existence, which happened in the 33d year of his age, at Bywell in Northumberland, on Wednesday the 21st of February, 1781.

Match'em left a great many favourite sons and daughters, viz. Alfred, sire of Columbus and Elfleda; Purity, the dam of Rockingham; Phlegon, sire of Capt. Tart; Pantaloon, sire of Fame; Turf, sire of Crop and Sappho; Chymist, sire of Truth and Druggist; Conundrum, sire of High-Priest, Thetford, Pucelle, Abadessa, and Bishop-Blaze; Protector, sire of Oliver Cromwell and Regent; Ranthos, sire of Sharper; Esperfykes, sire of Sir Peter Pellet; Atalanta, the dam of Faith and Pacolet; Pigeon, the dam of Carlo Khan; Maiden, the dam of Leveret; Miss Skeggs, the dam of Parlington; Mopfqueezer, the dam of Antagonist; Pumpkin, sire of Pumpkin; Conductor, sire of Imperator; Calypso, the dam of Latona; and Miss Cornforth, the dam of Sir Walter Vavafour's Marc Antony colt.

Amphion, Dux, Dictator, Critic, Priestess, North-Star, Gertrude, Goldfinch, Miss Nightingale, Magog, Magnum Bonum, Phoenix, Cannibal, Sod, Hollandoise, Rarity, Giantsess, Milliner, and Johnny; the last of which won fifteen times at Newmarket in the year 1775.

* On account of the disputes respecting the posting of the horses, &c. for the Jockey Club in the preceding year; it was agreed by the Noblemen and Gentlemen of the said Club, that the horses that ran for the same, in future, should only run one heat.

MAYDUKE, the property of the late John Pratt, Esq; was got by Emilius, son of Cade; his dam by Hutton's Spot, and out of the dam of Whistlejacket. In 1770, MAYDUKE won 50l. give-and-take at Preston, beating, at two heats, the Hon. J. S. Barry's Young Davy. He was sold to Mr. Legh, and in 1771, he won 50l. give-and-take at York; 50l. give-and-take at Manchester, beating, at two heats, the Hon. Morgan Vane's Clever; and 50l. give-and-take at Boroughbridge, beating, at two heats, Clever and Silvertail. In 1772, Mayduke won 50l. give-and-take at Chester; 50l. give-and-take at York; and 50l. give-and-take at Boroughbridge, beating, at two heats, Goldfinch and Slim. He was sold to Mr. Rock, in whose possession he won 50l. give-and-take at Penrith; 50l. give-and-take at Morpeth; and 50l. give-and-take at Carlisle. In 1776, he won 50l. give-and-take at Preston; and 50l. give-and-take at Liverpool, beating Mr. Wheatley's Blacklegs: In this year, Mayduke ran a dead heat with Goldfinch at Wakefield. In 1777, Mayduke ran a match over Whittington-Heath near Lichfield, against the Wyer-son-Poney, one twelve mile heat, for 60gs. which he won with great ease.— And in 1778, Mayduke won 50l. give-and-take at Nottingham, beating, at three heats, Mr. Goodison's Raspberry, &c.

She also won the four years old sweepstakes of 220gs. at Richmond; and on the following day, she won the four years old 50l. there. Melpomene also ran four severe heats against Emperor and May-Duke at Doncaster, which was the first time of her being beat. A few days after this race, Mr. Coates generously treated his friends and acquaintance at Yarm, and other places of his neighbourhood, with wine, punch, &c. who all had the honour of drinking out of the cup, great many of whom felt the potency of its contents, which when filled held about three quarts. Melpomene, to whom Mr. Coates was indebted for this valuable piece of plate, was afterwards engraved on its out-side, with her pedigree, and the different prizes she had won.—Melpomene was sold to Peregrine Wentworth, Esq; for 500gs. in hand, and Mr. Coates was to receive 100gs. more provided she won two King's plates in the following year. Morgan Vane's Emperor; and the King's plate at York; she also won the Stewards cup at Northallerton, beating at three heats, Mr. Bell's Denmark, Mr. Hutton's Navigator, and Mr. Cornforth's Iris; which was the last time of her winning, and last but two of her running. Melpomene was the dam of Mr. Burdon's Czarina, the only one she ever bred, for she unfortunately broke her neck when Czarina was a foal.

METAPHYSICIAN, the property of the Earl of Offory, was got by Snap; his dam by the Godolphin Arabian, which mare was own sister to the dam of Mr. Shafto's Signora, and out of an own sister to Sir Marmaduke Wyvill's Volunteer. Mr. Panton sold Mirza to Mr. Swymmer for 100gs.—Mr. Swymmer to Mr. Greville for 450gs.—and Mr. Greville to Sir James Lowther, (after winning the jockey club plate) for 1500gs. and it was said, that Sir James challenged the Northumberland Confederacy to run Mirza against Snap for 10,000gs. and allow him 4lb. but as Snap was on the road to the North, where he was engaged for a stallion, the challenge was not accepted. Mirza was afterwards a stallion in Sir James's stud.

MISS CORNFORTH, the property of James Preston, Esq; of Malton, Yorkshire, was got by Match'em; her dam by Sampson; grandam by Regulus, and out of a daughter of Traveller. In 1775, MISS CORNFORTH at 8st. 5lb. beat Mr. Bethell's Harlequin, 8st. 7lb. four miles, 200gs. at York; and won the four years old 50l. at Chesterfield; also the King's plate at Lincoln, beating Mr. H. She afterwards became a brood mare, and is the dam of Sir Walter Vavasour's Marc Antony colt, &c.

MISS NEESHAM, bred by Mr. Thompson of Neesham, in Cumberland, was got by Hartley's Blind Horse, son of the Holderness Turk; her dam by Commoner, son of Place's White Turk, sire of Wormwood, and the great grandam of Windham; Commoner was also sire of the Duke of Rutland's Commoner. In the year 1726, MISS NEESHAM, (then called Cripple) started for the King's plate in Clifton-Ings, near the city of York, and though beat, (owing to her being lame) Stephen Jefferson, who rode her, liked her performances so well, that Mr. Brewster, at his particular request, purchased her of Mr. Thompson. She was afterwards named Miss Neesham, and won a great number of plates and prizes, and was at that time esteemed a most excellent racer. In 1731, she was covered by Darley's Skipjack, son of his Arabian; notwithstanding, she raced all that season with her usual success. In the Spring, 1732, Neesham produced a filly, which was afterwards well known upon the turf by the name of Miss Patty. In 1733, Neesham was again trained, and was called Mother Neesham, and ran in that and the following year, against the best horses of the time, winning several plates, &c. She then became a brood-mare. Neesham was a mare of honesty and goodness; and out of the uncommon number of horses, &c. rode by Stephen Jefferson, was his greatest favourite—for she out-rivalled his darling Aleppo!

MISS PATTY, was grandam of Capt. Hebden's victorious Macheath, whose performances in the summer, 1778, are not equalled in the annals of the turf, for he swept, that year, all the four years old plates in the counties of Lancashire and Cheshire; and travelled and raced upwards of 500 miles in the space of seven weeks, in which time he won six plates of 50l. each, at the following places, viz. Manchester, Preston, Lancaster, Nantwich, Liverpool, and Knutsford. He was got by Mr. Warren's Camillus, son of the Cullen Arabian; and out of a daughter of Regulus, which mare was out of Miss Patty. Macheath's dam, was also the dam of Mr. Wentworth's Fearnought, son of Engineer.

In 1773, MISS SKEGGS beat Sir L. Dundas's grey colt, by Mark, two miles, for 400gs. at York; where she also received 100gs. from Mr. Bethell's brown Swift colt. In 1774, Miss Skeggs won a sweepstakes of 240gs. at Beverley, beating Mr. Gee's bay filly, by Engineer; Sir James Pennyman's bay colt, by Jalap; Mr. Osbaldeston's Rosetta, and Sir J. L. Kaye's Fireworker; after which she won a sweepstakes of 850gs. at York, beating Takamahaka, Whiteleather, &c. Miss Skeggs also started for the great subscription in the same week; but unfortunately broke down just after turning the two-mile post when leading all the others with uncommon ease. This accident not only prevented her from winning, but also rendered her incapable of running any more. She is now a brood-mare in Mr. Stapleton's stud at Carleton, and is the dam of Parlington &c.

MISS NIGHTINGALE, bred by the late John Pratt, Esq; was own sister to Goldfinch, (see page 50.) In 1775, MISS NIGHTINGALE, (then Mr. Bethell's) won a sweepstakes of 100gs. for 3 y. olds, at Malton, beating Mr. Hebden's Periscus, &c. In 1776, she won a sweepflakes of 200gs. at Newcastle, beating Mr. Shafto's Hazard, Mr. Wentworth's Fairplay, &c. and the four years old 50l. at Doncaster; she also won the 50l. at Malton, beating, at two heats, Mr. Gee's Caroline, Mr. Wentworth's Chamont, &c. In 1777, Miss Nightingale won a sweepstakes of 10gs each, wt. for age at Preston, beating Sir Frank Standish's Aurelius, Lord Derby's Young Fellow, &c. the 80l. give-and-take at York; the gold cup at Richmond; and a sweepstakes of 100gs. wt. for age at Malton, beating Black Tom and Carbuncle. In 1778, Miss Nightingale won a sweepstakes of 140gs. wt. for age at Beverley, beating Bourdon, Ancafter, and Marcia; which was the last time of her running. She was entered, in the same year, for the aged plate at Boroughbridge, but unfortunately died the Sunday evening previous to the races. Suspicions having arisen of her being poisoned, she was opened, when there were found in her stomach, about two pounds weight of duck shot, made up in several balls of putty. A person, named William Turner, was committed to York Castle on suspicion of giving her the same, but was acquitted at the Assizes for want of sufficient evidence. — Miss Nightingale was allowed by sportsmen, to be one of the best mares of her year that appeared in the North of England.

MISS TIMS, the property of the late John Pratt, Esq; was bred by him and got by Match'em, out of the dam of Maiden, Purity, &c. (see page 64.) In 1771, MISS TIMS won a sweepstakes of 750gs. and the great subscription of 288l. at York; she also won the four years old 50l. at Richmond. In 1772, Miss Tims won 50l. at Northallerton, beating, at two heats, Mr. Cornforth's Jucasta, and Mr. Hutton's Fair Maid. At Newmarket in April, 1773, (in Mr. Fox's name) at 8ft. 5lb. she beat Mr. Wentworth's Achilles, 8ft. 10lb. three miles of B. C. 400gs.

MOLLY, (distinguished from others of that name by the name of Mr. Panton's Molly) was not a mare of considerable size, nor had she so great a share of speed as some others have had; but was a mare of such lastingness in running that she was never beat at Newmarket, till in a match, which cost her her life. Molly was bred by ——— Thurland, Esq; of the county of Surrey, got by Sir John Parson's Barb, (afterwards the Earl of Burlington's.) It was reported, that her dam was bought in a fair for a trifling sum of money, and therefore it was imagined, she was a mare of little esteem, and not well bred; but several sportsmen, at that time, insisted on the contrary, saying, that she was a daughter of a full sister to Mr. Brown's (of Buckland, Surrey) Quiet, a galloway of great fame in his time, especially in the South of England. At Newmarket in 1720, MOLLY beat Mr. Frampton's Potatoe, a match of 200gs. — Lord Drogheda's Pickle-Herring, for 150gs. — Ld. Millington's mare, two matches of 100gs. each; and received 50gs. from a mare of Mr. Cumberland's. In 1721, she beat Lord Millington's Stripling, for 200gs. and received the following forfeits, viz. 100gs. from Mr. Proby's Chimney-Sweeper; 150gs. from Mr. Frampton's Dun; and three of 100gs. each, from Lord Drogheda's Ticklepitcher, which three were made to be run in one day. In 1722, Molly beat Sir William Morgan's Beau, for 300gs. and Mr. Frampton's Miss Workop, for 150gs. In 1723, she beat Lord Drogheda's Snip, for 300gs. and his Lordship's Wiuty Gelding, for 200gs. The CURWEN BAY BARB, fire of the dam of Partner, was brought into England by Mr. Curwen of Workington, Cumberland; who being in France at a time when Count Byram and Count Thoulouse, (two natural sons of Lewis the XIV.) where the former was Master of the Horse, and the latter an Admiral; he procured of them two Barbs which he conveyed to England: One of which became the property of Sir John Parsons of Rygate, Surrey, and was named the THOULOUSE BARB; the other was a present to Lewis from Muly Ishmael, King of Morocco, which, after he came to England, proved so excellent a stallion, that he was distinguished, for several years, by the bare stile of the BAY BARB, and was so well known to sportsmen by that name, as he would have been, provided there had never been another Barb horse of his colour in the kingdom. The Thoulouse Barb was fire of the famous mare called the Rygate Mare, which was the dam of Cinnamon, &c. he also got Mr. Pantons Molly, Sir Wm. Blackett's Bagpiper and Blacklegs, Mr. Thompson's Rosamond, and many others.

Partner was a horse of high form and goodnefs, and would, undoubtedly, have won several other prizes besides the above, if he had not unfortunately fallen lame at the early time of his racing, and which frequently happened to him when running. Partner was fire of the dam of the famous Gimcrack, who, after beating Cardinal Puff, Bay Maton, &c. was sold to Lord Grosvenor for 1200gs. and, it was said, a premium of 500gs. was immediately offered his Lordship for the bargain.

They all ran for the second heat to the utmost extremity, and in the last three miles the difference of speed could not be distinguished between any of the three, till near the Ending-Post, when Ripon got a-head, and won the heat by near a neck's length from Cato. The third heat was also run away with great impetuosity; but the ungovernable speed which Cato and Blacklegs run the first heat in, gave Ripon an opportunity to win the plate, though with a great deal of trouble. the two following from Gustavus. At Newmarket in April, 1751, Sampson won the subscription plate of 50l. wt. 10st. beating, at two heats, Lord Portmore's Oroonoko, by Crab; Mr. Panton's Drudge, and Lord Gower's Squirrel. The first heat was a long time very severely disputed at the rising ground at the running up to the Ending-Post, between Sampson and Squirrel, when the superior strength of Sampson prevailed, to the great joy of the Yorkshire gentlemen who had large sums of money depending on him. The bets at starting, were gold to silver on Sampson, and after the heat, even money against him, owing to Drudge* not running for the first heat, who was expected to have made a better figure than he did. Sampson afterwards walk'd over for the King's plate at Salisbury; won the King's plate at Winchester, and the King's plate at Canterbury, beating, at two smart heats, Sir Edward Hale's Drudge; also won the King's plate at Lewes, beating, very easy, Sir Charles Goring's Tom Thumb, by Golden Locks; and walk'd over for the King's plate at Newmarket in October; where in April following, he started against Thwackum for the King's plate, when Sampson won the first heat, but not very easy, though the odds were then 8 to 1 in his favour; the second was a remarkable fine heat, which Sampson lost with the mortification of being whipped for the first time; and the last heat was allowed to be the finest sport ever seen. The above were the only times of Sampson's starting; and the reason assigned for his being beat, was, that his eye-sight (at all times tender) particularly failed him after the first heat; a conjecture not ill-founded, as he had beat Thwackum three times before. Sampson was rode by Mr. J. Singleton, and Thwackum by Mr. Thomas Jackson. Sampson became a stallion at Malton, Yorkshire, and afterwards in Lord Rockingham's stud. He was sire of Bay Malton, Engineer, Pilgrim, and other good runners, and died about the year 1777.

SCAMPSTON CADE, the property of Sir William St. Quintin, Bart. of Scampston, near Scarbrough, Yorkshire, was bred by him, and got by Cade; his dam was the famous Selima, daughter of Bethell's Arabian, (for which see Herod's pedigree, page 52.) J. S. Barry's Young Davy, that won fourteen 50l. prizes, and was allowed to be one of the best give-and-take horses in England. At Newmarket in April, 1757, Scrub beat easy Lord Northumberland's Brutus, six miles, 40ogs. and at 8ft. 11lb. beat Lord March's Janus, 8ft. 7lb. B. C. 20ogs. — This race was finantly contested, and won by only half a neck. He also won a sweepstakes of 20ogs. give-and-take at Doncaster. Andrew Wilkinson, Esq; of Yorkshire, in whose possession Sedbury was foaled. His dam was called the Old Montague Mare, and was got by the Darcy Woodcock, son of Bufler; her dam, (the cause of her name) was of the kind of Lord Montague of Cowdry, in Suffex, a nobleman eminent for his breed of horses (and running many of them) in the reign of King Charles the Second. Sedbury, before a year old, was sold to Mr. Mann of Boroughbridge, Yorkshire, in whose possession he won in 1738, the subscription purse for four-year olds at Hambleton. SNAKE, bred by Matthew Lister, Esq; of Lincolnshire, was got by his Turk; and out of a daughter of Wilkes's Hautboy. The said Turk was brought into England by the Duke of Berwick, from the seige of Buda, in the reign of King Charles the Second, and was as often called the Stradling as the Lifter Turk. SNAKE never was a running horse being rendered incapable by a tumorous swelling that attended him in his youth; and from a supposition that the fame was the effect of the sting or bite of some venomous reptile, was therefore called Snake.—He was sire of Mr. Williams's Squirrel (own brother to the sire of the grandam of Eclipse) Bay Wikinon, Easy Snake, Bald Peg, of Lowther, (sire of the Ancafter Trip) Lord Derby's Molly in the Moss, &c. &c. he was also sire of Mr. Metcalfe's famous old mare, which bred Squirt, Lady Caroline, Nestgul, Shock, Lady Betty, &c. and of the dam of Mr. Aillabie's Bucephalus.

HAUTOBOY, sire of the dam of Snake, was bred by the Darcy family, and got by the White Darcy or Sedbury Turk, and out of a Royal Mare. King Charles the Second sent abroad the Master of the Horse, (which was said by some to be a Sir Christopher Wyvill, and by others, a Sir John Fenwick) in order to procure a number of foreign high-bred horses and mares for breeding; and the mares thus procured by the King's interest, and brought into England (as also many of their off-spring) have been called Royal Mares; one of which was the dam of Hautboy.—HAUTOBOY was never trained for racing, and was frequently called Wilkes's Old Hautboy.

SNIP, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, was got by Flying Childers; his dam, (Crab's dam) by Ballo; his grandam was the dam of Crofts' Partner; (see page, 82), SNIP was own brother to Second, Blacklegs, Puff, &c. He was five years old in 1742, in which year he ran at Newmarket, but proved an unsuccessful racer. Snip afterwards became a favourite stallion in the North of England, where he died in May 1757. He was sire of Snap and several other running horses, &c. The following paragraph was inserted in the public papers soon after his death:—

“Dead.—In a duel, at his seat at Kenton, Northumberland, Childers Snip, Esq. He has left his estates, which are reckoned considerable, to his son Cuthbert Snap, Esq; and three small legacies to his sons, Prince T'Quasfaw, and the Judge; and his favourite daughter, Mrs. Barbary: The cause of the quarrel is said to be a love affair. His heir was sent for post haste upon his death, and is gone to reside at the seat of his father, to the great joy of that country, who had a kind of veneration for that illustrious family.”

SNAP, the property of Jenison Shafto, Esq; was got by Snip, son of the Devonshire Childers; his dam, (own sister to Slipby) by Lord Portmore's Fox; his grandam, Gipsy, by Bay Bolton; great grandam by the Duke of Newcastle's Turk, out of a daughter of the Byerley Turk. At Newmarket first Spring Meeting 1756, SNAP beat easy the Duke of Cumberland's Marisk, by Squirt, 10l. each, B. C. 1000gs. In the second Spring Meeting, he beat Marisk a second time, at the same weight, 1000gs. The odds, at starting, were 10 to 1 on Snap, and over the flat, 30 to 1; Marisk being all abroad, and was beat by half a distance at the Ditch-half mile. Snap also won the free plate of 100gs. at York; and received 50gs. not to start for the 100l. prize, at Stockton. At Newmarket in April, 1757, Snap beat Lord Gower's Sweepstakes, 9st. each, B. C.

1000gs. The above were the only times of Snap's running. Immediately after his winning the last race, he was sent to succeed his sire in the North, where he covered several years with great success; but was afterwards removed to West-Wratting, where he died in the year 1777, and the following paragraph was published at his death:

"In the beginning of July, died at his seat at West-Wratting, Cambridgeshire, aged 27 years, Childers Snap, Esq; who has left a numerous progeny, which have shone with lustre in their generations. He had many favourite sons, the most distinguished of which is Goldfinder, who most inherits his father's blood.—His eldest son Omnium was unfortunate in his youth by getting lame, otherwise would have been his father's darling; nevertheless he has not disgraced his great progenitor, and has improved the family estate. Mr. Snap had many favourite daughters, among whom was Angelica, married early to Tartar Herod, Esq; by whom she had Charles Evergreen, Esq; a gentleman of great merit, now residing at Leverington near Wilbech; also Snapdragon, who produced the hero* that won the 5500gs. at Newmarket 2d Spring Meeting, 1777. There was also another daughter, who was mother of the famous Pantaleon; the mother of Shark was likewise of this family, as was the mother of the celebrated Alfred. He has left many valuable legacies to his different relations; but the bulk of his fortune, amounting to upwards of 30,000l. he generously distributed in his life time to his patrons the SHAFTO family. His seat at West-Wratting, he has bequeathed to his favourite daughter ANGELICA (Assassin's dam) for life, where she is now resident."
